U.S. federal income tax purposes membership dues are deductible as a business expense, but not as a charitable contribution. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 requires the American Firewood Producers and Distributors Association to inform its members that an estimated 19% of dues may be allocated to lobbying expenditures as defined by the Act, and that as a result, that percentage is not deductible as a business expense.

As a result of paying annual membership dues to the American Firewood Producers and Distributors Association (AFPDA), I certify that we have selected the appropriate membership category, have paid the appropriate level of annual dues for the company named, and will provide verification of sales and/or a notarized letter attesting to membership classification and dues category for the company.
